April 27, 1992

Dear Friends:

This first volume of The Cemetery Records of St. Johns County represents a new direction for the St. Augustine Genealogical Society. We hope this will be the first independent publication of many for our society.

Volumes such as this represent an extreme amount of time and effort by many members of our society. It would be impossible to recount the amount of volunteer work that was given to assist in the publication of this record. Special note should be the contribution of Durward and Nardine Brandon with the photographs.

Needless to say we hope that you will benefit by the publication of these records. The cemetery records came mostly from physical observation. This leaves room for errors and corrections, although the records have been checked at least twice. In the coming volumes we will offer more information on these cemeteries based upon other records that we may encounter including funeral home records, newspapers, cemetery records, and as in the case of Sanksville cemetery---family records. This list is in no way absolute.

Please send any additional information you may have to the above listed address. We appreciate and encourage your support and participation in this worthwhile project.

Sincerely,

Leslie and Gil Wilson
Editors

Sons of Israel Cemetery

The first Sephardic Jews settled in the (Florida) panhandle in 1763. The first Synagogue in the State is thought to be in Pensacola. It is believed that The Congregation Sons of Israel in St. Augustine is the third in the state. Tradition has it that the land that comprises the Sons of Israel Cemetery was bought by the congregation when they discovered that an early Jewish peddler was murdered by hostile Indians and buried there. The cemetery is located on Evergreen Street in St. Augustine.

Sanksville Cemetery

Sanksville Cemetery is owned by the Sanks family. The late Lewis Keeplo Sanks, Jr. went door to door through the black community to obtain information on burials in this cemetery because he felt it so important to have these records written down. He was a member of the St. Augustine Genealogical Society. Daniel Rawley and Margie Godby first walked through the cemetery (in 1990) with Mr. Sanks first list, and Carol Bradshaw and Daniel Rawley reviewed and updated the list in April, 1992.

To reach the cemetery, take County Road 208 west and make a right turn into Joe Ashton Road. Turn right into the first road (hard-packed dirt) and the cemetery is about 100 ft. down the road.
